

Trauner Speaks; Groups Ask Boat Ramps at Donner

John T. Trauner, Nevada County auditor-controller, was the luncheon speaker before the Truckee-Donner Chamber of Commerce yesterday. He discussed autonomy in local government, citing both advantages and drawbacks.

The chamber went on record favoring a public concrete boat ramp at the east end of Donner Lake, on state property. It also voted to post the Donner Lake area, warning people to properly control their boats and to avoid littering the shore area.

President Dave Morey presided.

Publicly owned boat ramps on the north shore of Donner Lake were considered at the April 19 meeting of the Nevada County recreation commission, held in Nevada City.

A letter from the Truckee Donner Recreation and Park District pointed out the public interest in such a project. The district emphasized its interest in developing the ramps and said the land is owned by the county. The district inquired as to how it could acquire title to the required land. The suggestion was forwarded to the board of supervisors by the commission for further consideration.

Other agenda items dealt with items affecting the west end of the county or the county as a whole. Dr. H. P. Tapia of Truckee, chairman, presided at the meeting.

The next regular meeting of the group will be held in the court house at 8 p. m. May 17.

TPUD Crossing County Bounds Being Proposed

A precedent shattering annexation to the Truckee Public Utility District is scheduled for public hearing here on May 17, according to an announcement by Francis Longo, clerk of the board for the TPUD.

It is proposed that, for the first time since its organization in 1937, the boundaries of the district be extended beyond the Nevada County line into neighboring Placer County. The objective is to annex approximately 30 acres of Ponderosa Palisades subdivision units one and two. This territory is immediately south of the section of the subdivision in this county, presently served with power and water by the TPUD. It is located just south of town, adjacent to the Brockway road.

The hearing on the proposal will be held at 7:30 p. m. at the district office in down town Truckee. All persons interested are invited to appear at the hearing or to submit any objections to the annexation in writing to Longo prior to the date and time set.

The procedure is in accord with Resolution 6604, adopted by the district directors at a meeting April 19.

Draft Mix-Up Stirs Young Men, Folks

Hasty interpretations of a Selective Service System announcement that men of draft age and those approaching it had until last Saturday to file applications for scholastic deferment sent boys and their parents by the score to draft boards, schools and every conceivable official who might have a connection with the system throughout California.

Tahoe Truckee school district was no exception, reports Jim Brehler of the local high school faculty. Parents and teen-agers contacting them have been told "we have no notice, we have no forms, we have no information." Brehler said when they do have, they will give sufficient notice.

In the meantime, he has made unofficial inquiry. He learned that Col. Kenneth Leitch, state director of selective service, states high school youths who are college bound do not have to worry about taking the May 14, May 21 or June 3 deferment tests. They will have plenty of time to apply for taking other similar tests.

All information available indicates the Saturday deadline applied only to specific students already in college. These had direct notice in plenty of time. High school students, potential graduates, could have saved themselves much anxiety.

Brehler stated that whenever such testing schedules and material are routed to the local high school, all advance notice possible will be made available to everyone concerned.

Other close survivors are the young girl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dumas and sister, Jody, of Truckee.

The condition of James Clifton, 15 of Truckee was reported yesterday from Washoe Medical Center at Reno as still being on the critical list, without change, following an automobile, truck crash that occurred last week on Highway 89 overpass at Truckee.

His sister, Debbie, 16, who was also sent to the Reno hospital, is said to be improving satisfactorily and Herbert Kuykendall, 18, of Roseville, a third victim of the accident at Washoe Medical Center, was removed from intensive care and his condition improved.

Barbara Curtis, 17, the fourth survivor, was reported improved in the Tahoe Forest Hospital here.

Two sports films, Warren Miller's "Snow Flyers" and Dick Barrymore's "Some Like It Cold," were shown. Refreshments were served by Connie Cole and Anita Ormsby.

C. F. McGlashan Focus of Exhibit At Museum Here

Charles F. McGlashan, 19th century editor of the Truckee Republican and local patriarch, is featured in the new lobby exhibit at the Emigrant Trail Museum in Donner Memorial State Park.

Among the exhibits is the December 6, 1879 edition of the newspaper, a photo of McGlashan with a biographical sketch, a 1907 edition of his History of the Donner Party and other memorabilia of the man.

Bert Troelsen, historical guide at the museum, has prepared the exhibit. He acknowledged the generosity of McGlashan's daughter, Mrs. Douglas McGlashan Kelley, of Santa Barbara in loaning several items.

Also included are photographs of the old Truckee ice palace, the seal of the McGlashan water works, glass vials containing relics of the old Murphy cabin which McGlashan sold for $1 each to help finance a memorial to the Donner Party, souvenir coins of the ice carnival, a bottle which once held McGlashan mineral water and other objects of interest.

The focal point of this interesting exhibit was, successively, a Methodist minister, teacher, publisher, attorney and politician. He served in the state assembly and was once nominated for governor on the American Workingman's Party ticket in the eighties. His home in Truckee occupied the present site of the Veterans Memorial Building and was connected to the Rocking Stone tower land mark, which still stands.

It is anticipated this showing will attract considerable attention from those interested in the history of Truckee and vicinity.

'Bizz' Lauds Youth Named to Academy

Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson has nominated James Gregory Schwartz of Sugar Bowl Lodge as one of his two principal appointees to the U. S. Air Force academy at Colorado Springs. The other is George Scott Tandy of Oroville, with Steven L. Gillum, Oroville, alternate.

"All three of these young men are outstanding candidates," Johnson said, "and I am proud to have them represent the second congressional district."

He said the competition was stiff and parents, teachers and others who have been associated with these young men can be proud of their achievement.

Schwartz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Schwartz of Sugar Bowl Lodge. His father is the general manager of the lodge. Young Schwartz has been flying for a year and is an outstanding skier. He has competed for the Tahoe Truckee High School, where he also is an honor student as well as for the Sugar Bowl Ski team and the Far West Ski Association team.

Last September, young Schwartz was the only high school junior invited to attend the summer Olympic training program in Bend, Oregon.

Truckee Scouts Plan Junket to Grass Valley

Twenty-one members of Boy Scouts Troop 7 met to lay plans for their trip on April 29 to the Camporee at Grass Valley, where the new group will enter competition for ribbon awards.

Mrs. Howard Hansen and Mrs. Arley Fisk have worked diligently with the boys and the active cooperation of the parents is required if the troop is going to function with success. Parents may contact either of the ladies for information.

Among the April birthdate celebrants is Mrs. A. E. Burlingham, who was remembered by her friends and family.

Local Rainbowers Clean Brockway Shortcut Saturday

If you were one of the many people traveling the Truckee-Brockway Shortcut Saturday, April 23, you probably saw groups of attractive ladies with large gunny sacks walking along the sides of the road.

If you thought about it at all, you may have conjectured they were "snipe hunting" or taking a random hike.

These girls were from the Hope Assembly, International Order of the Rainbow for Girls in Truckee. They were on one of their many service projects, this one highway clean-up.

This crew of 22 girls started at eight that morning and terminated at 1:00 p. m. They collected 150 bags full of rubbish which had been thrown along the 12 mile strip they patrolled.

The girls remind motorists, "The next time you're travelling on our roads: STOP! Don't throw out that paper; LOOK! at our beautiful area; THINK! of those girls cleaning and the 150 bags of rubbish, before you dirty up America's highways."

New V.F.W. Post Being Organized

A new post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is being organized at Truckee, according to Fermin Obias, 19th district commander, department of California, VFW.

Veterans with overseas service who are interested in joining the Veterans of Foreign Wars as charter members of the new post in Truckee should contact Steve Dunbar of Fibreboard Paper Products Corporation, P. O. Box 278, Truckee, or Stanley Holmes, P. O. Box 1086, Truckee, for further information.

Oldest of the major veterans organizations in the nation, the VFW has over 1,300,000 members. Membership is restricted to those who have served in the United States armed forces overseas in time of war. The VFW carries on programs for assisting veterans, their widows and orphans. It also sponsors programs for the nation's youth, as well as service to patriotic, educational and community improvement projects.

"The need for more VFW posts is firmly established by the service which they can, and do, render to a community," Obias stated. "The fact that we are organized to serve the veterans, their widows and orphans means we must have VFW posts in every city and town where veterans live. Truckee is no exception, as there are many veterans who reside here."

Veterans Tax Relief Deadline For Filing Rapidly Approaches

Veterans in the eastern end of Nevada County are reminded of a 5 p. m., Monday, May 2, deadline for filing for county property tax exemption, according to Fred Hodder, liaison officer. Exemption applications will be received in his office at the Nevada County government building in Gateway.

Eligible service veterans who have not previously established exemption must appear in person with proof of discharge. Any veteran who has any questions regarding his rights or limitations under this program should call Hodder's office, 587-3847, before the deadline date.

OFFICIALS VISIT

District Attorney Harold A. Berlinger and Undersheriff Frank Gallino were official visitors in Truckee from the county seat yesterday.

Incline Villagers Suggest Creation Of New Township

INCLINE VILLAGE—Residents of the northeast shoreline of Lake Tahoe Monday, April 25, appeared before the Washoe County Commissioners, requesting a township be created in their area for administration of local government.

The written recommendation noted the communities of Crystal Bay and Incline Village have approximately 4,500 permanent residents. They pointed out their separation from Reno, the county seat, by "a natural barrier of mountains 5,000 feet above the level of Lake Tahoe."

The petitioners also noted that during the summer season the population tends to increase about eight-fold. This brings a multiplication and complication of policing and jurisdictional problems.

Creation of a township here would eliminate the necessity of going to Reno for such civic services as local policing and small claims court actions. If the commissioners approve the request, a justice of the peace would be appointed. No additional building would be needed since space is available in the new sheriff's substation at Incline Village, promoters of the new township pointed out.

Tree Plant Starts On Truckee Forest

Tree planting began this year on April 7 on the Truckee ranger district, U. S. Forest Service. The starting date was almost a month earlier than expected by USFS officials.

This year may be the best season for planting in recent years, says Dave Mohla, district ranger. Because of the early warm weather, the snow pack melted unusually fast to make planting areas accessible.

"We hope to get more moisture after the trees are planted," Mohla said.

He pointed out it is desirable to have the trees planted and then have some rain or snow fall on them, rather than have the trees try to survive a long, dry summer without any moisture.

Cal-Pacific Foresters, Inc., crewmen are planting trees on the Donner Burn. The area was cleared and all debris burned last fall. Each crewman can plant about two acres a day or about 900 seedlings.

Truckee Incorporation Of Official Concern at Meeting in A.M. May 9

An official notice appears elsewhere in this issue, reminding local residents of a public hearing to determine the feasibility of a petition for the incorporation of Truckee into a city. The troop and their leaders wish to thank the park's personnel who were so helpful in their explanations.

'66 Trout Season Opening April 30, Outlook Is Good

California's summer trout season opener Saturday, April 30, could be the best in many years, reports the state department of fish and game. The season starts one hour before sunrise.

Warden Charles Spillner of Truckee reports that Boca and Prosser reservoirs are filling and will be in good condition for the opening. The high country has opened up, due to an early thaw with creeks and streams at lower elevations easily accessible by road. Water conditions in most streams are excellent for trout this early in the year, the DFG states. Streams have not been too muddy or high, thanks to a gradual melting of snow.

Spillner points out this entire area will be open Saturday, with the exception of tributary streams running into Lake Tahoe and a new closure this year, Pole Creek, a tributary to the Truckee River near Big Chief, Donner Lake, under different regulations as to limits and so forth, has been open for about a month.

The department says wardens will be out in force to make sure regulations, especially those pertinent to licensing, are observed. Individuals 16 years of age or older need a valid 1966 sport fishing license—cost, $3—and two special fishing stamps—cost, $1 each.

The bag limit in most areas is 10. Anglers are reminded to consult sport fishing regulations for exceptions and other rules. Copies of these regulations are available without cost where ever fishing licenses are sold.

State and national forestry officials are somewhat apprehensive, due to the early run-off and prevalent clear, dry weather. Fire seasons in central and southern California have been declared about a month ahead of schedule.

This means burning permits are required, smoking regulations are enforced rigidly and fire crews are going on regular fire season operations—24 hours a day—in many sections.

While present conditions augur well for the opener, they also raise pessimism for the extended season. The department of water resources said recently that it would not be a really good water year unless there were unseasonal storms in April and none has developed. What started as a fine water season tapered off right after the first of the year. Higher temperatures dropped the snow pack 10 to 20 per cent during March, when it should have increased by 15 per cent.

Trespassers Given Warning By Euer

L. Euer has issued a warning as the 1966 fishing season gets underway that trespassers will not be tolerated on his private property and roads running into Summit Lake, Negro Canyon and Euer Valley. Generally, this territory lies just north of Donner Lake and I-80.

Euer pointed out that the roads especially have suffered thousands of dollars in damage over the past three seasons, all of which he has had to repair at his own expense. Even the forest service has only limited access on these roads.

Beside road damage, signs notifying that it is private property have been ripped down, gates have been destroyed and locks demolished by unauthorized trespassers.

"I am reluctant to bar access to responsible people, but the conclusion to post, gate and patrol my property came as the result of ruinously costly experience," Euer said. "Let there be no question, trespassers and vandals will be arrested and prosecuted."

He pointed out the roads in question are in no sense public access routes. They are purchased, recorded and maintained privately by Euer.

Sierra Skiing

By VI WHITE

Three local skiers were named top racers for the year at the northern California and Nevada Winter Sports Writers meeting in San Francisco last week.

Selected as top senior racers were Jim Heuga of Tahoe City, a student at the University of Colorado, and a member of the U. S. Alpine Ski Team and Lilo Michel of Switzerland, of Ski Club Zuerleu in San Francisco.

Juniors named were Vicki Jones of Tahoe City and Greg Schwartz of Sugar Bowl.

Knute Olberg of Norway, a student at Sierra College, was picked as top college competitor in both Alpine and Nordic events during the season.

Rolf Funk of Heavenly Valley and John Sachs of Oakland were selected as top senior and junior Nordic men.

Andy Schaaf of Ski Club Zuerleu

leu was named as outstanding ski coach. His club class C racers all advanced to class B during the season.

A special award was named for Dave McCoy for his outstanding service to skiers at his Mammoth Mountain resort in the southern part of the state.

The San Francisco Viking Ski Club bulletin "Nordic Gazette" was awarded the best publication of a bay area ski club.

The annual Far West Ski Association convention will be held this weekend at Las Vegas. Len Speicher of Los Angeles has served his third year as president and was named FWSA's 1966 "Man of the Year."

The United States Ski Association convention will be held June 2-5 at Jackson Hole, Wyoming, with Byron Nishkian of San Francisco presiding.

Two more FWSA races are scheduled, the Memorial Day event at Mammoth and the mid-summer derby at Squaw Valley, July 3rd. These will end the racing season for 1966.

All the Far West Ski Instructor Association directors were re-elected for another year at their convention at Mammoth Mountain last week.

Jim Winthers of Sacramento and Soda Springs, president; Bud Jones of Tahoe City and Bill Strickland of Long Beach, vice presidents; George Schaaf of Sacramento, executive secretary and Nick Fiore of Yosemite, treasurer.

They will attend the Professional Ski Instructors of America convention at Sun Valley, Idaho, next month.

Young Sandra Poulsen of Squaw Valley had the third fastest time of all the women and shared class B honors with Pat Fortune of China Peak at the Dick Springer Memorial slalom at Mammoth last weekend.

This was a long season and a very profitable one for all in the ski business. Starting way back in early November with fantastic powder snow that lasted several months until now with excellent spring skiing conditions!

Motels, restaurants, gas stations and accompanying businesses in the area had an increase in trade over last winter and with the expansion program planned at existing and new ski areas, there is bound to be an even greater influx of skiers next year.

Grayson Group Ending Run At Lake Tahoe Spot

CRVSTAL BAY—The new act on the Nevada club scene that has taken visitors to the North end of Lake Tahoe by storm, the Jack Grayson Trio, closes a three week fun-filled stint at the Nevada Lodge, north Lake Tahoe's largest year round resort hotel casino.

New to the big Ponderosa country, the show-biz veterans from Arizona have welded themselves into a solid, swinging group: sure to move ever upward and onward on the billboard and Variety ratings. Jack Grayson leads the group, while mastering the drums and smoothly vocalizing. Beauty and talent is provided by pianist Marilyn Spencer who breathes new life into old pianos. Bass, trombone, and colorful vocal stylings are contributed by Tommy Whittaker, who rounds out the triumvirate.

Coming into the Topaz Room of the Nevada Lodge on May 4 is the lovely Suzi Arden, the "doin' what comes naturally" girl of the Jubilee USA television show. The pretty redhead with the ready smile is a show business veteran—first stepping onto the spotlight side of the footlights at the age of three.

A Kapp recording star, Suzie, who specializes in country and Western vocalizing has been listed in "Amusement Business" as the "Most Vivacious and Untiring Performer" in show business. But, above all, the charm and beauty that this gal projects across the footlights passes all understanding.

Still going strong at the Nevada Lodge is The Four Tunes, the young group that made itself famous several years ago with a million-selling record version of "Marie." The surprising quartet will continue to please the many aficionados of the Ink Spots and Mills Bros. type of vocalizing—through May 10.

NEW FAIR BOSS
Harrison Cutler, 53, Elk Grove, has been named manager of the California State Fair and Exposition by the fair's board of directors. Cutler's appointment was made April 15 to fill a post vacated by retired manager Theodore Rosequist of Sacramento.

At Homewood—
The J. T. White family has returned from Carmichael to enjoy the spring weather at Homewood.

TO AUTHORITY
SACRAMENTO —(CNS)— Governor Edmund G. Brown has announced the appointment of Dr. Thomas Ryan Flinn, a San Francisco dentist, as a member of the adult authority.

COUNTY BOND SALES
"Sales in this county of U. S. Savings Bonds last month amounted to $15,950 and total bond sales throughout northern California reached $12,263,883," volunteer Nevada County U. S. Savings Bonds chairman Willard J. Rose reports.

YOUNG FARMERS
Around 175,000 California youth under age 22 will find work in the state's agriculture during the 1966 harvest season, an increase of almost 15 per cent over the 150,000 estimated to have worked in agriculture in 1965.

Berliner, center, and Sheriff Wayne Brown of Nevada County, on his right, are shown with Thomas Lynch, state attorney general, at a recent meeting of Zone One DA's, sheriffs and police chiefs, held in Nevada City. "Super Government" Idea Being Advanced In Lake Tahoe Basin

A super-government agency empowered to review and "if necessary, overrule" local governing agencies in the Lake Tahoe basin is being advocated by directors of the League to Save Lake Tahoe, which headquarters in San Francisco.

The league said such a solution "appears to be the only practical counter-force" to control "run-away development and conserve scenic values" around the lake.

Proposals for a regional, bi-state body were discussed at a recent two-day meeting on the subject. Representatives of the governors of Nevada and California, along with spokesmen for the six counties bordering the lake, participated.

Speaking out for "an effective regional body to preserve the resources of Lake Tahoe" was George S. Gatter, executive director of the league. He feels there is an "immediate need" for controls of tree cutting, grading and road building, veto power on public works projects, scenic easement reservations, underground wiring, design

Tumbles on Stairways Cited in Court Suits

AUBURN—Falls on stairs at Squaw Valley in April 1965 form the basis for two separate suits filed by bay area women in Placer County superior court last week.

Attorney Myron D. Alexander of Menlo Park, representing Doris Erreca, says his client fell down a stairway leading to the barbecue pit at Squaw Valley Lodge April 17, fracturing her arm, leg and wrist. She asks $50,000 damages and $3,073 medical expenses from Squaw Valley Development Company.

A suit filed by William E. Jageman, Berkeley lawyer, for Katherine Batavia alleges she injured her nervous system in a fall April 14 last year at Squaw Valley Inn. She seeks $15,000.

Winter Ends—Aileen Hatfield is an early arrival for the season at Carnelian Bay from Burbank, her winter residence.

Fresnan Low Bidder On Sierra Road Job

A low bid of $177,116 was received April 13 by the state division of highways for reconstruction of a four-mile section of Highway 49 in Sierra County north of Sierraville.

Stanton Biggs of Fresno was lowest of eight bidders, according to officials at the Marysville district office.

Work will get underway after the attorney general approves the contract, in about a month, and will require about 65 working days. The section to be improved begins 1.3 miles north of Sierraville. Traffic will be permitted to pass through construction with a minimum of inconvenience and operations will be suspended on Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays.

Gen. Phipps Cabin May Be Museum

In discussing development plans for the Sugar Pine Point State Park on the west shore of Lake Tahoe near Tahoe, Fred L. Jones, director of parks and recreation, said "It is in our plans to develop and use the General Phipps Cabin as an historical building in the interpretation of the history of the Lake Tahoe area."

A minimum of 75 camp, picnic units will be available to the public when the new park opens. Facilities for "immediate public use" are located between SR89 and the lake. Development of 100 permanent camp sites, 100 picnic sites and 100 parking spaces is provided in the department's 1966-67 budget, now before the legislature.

Construction of sanitary facilities will be planned to eventually "hookup with a central sewage trunk system proposed for exportation of effluent out of the Lake Tahoe basin," Jones said.

There will be 168 camp sites available this year at D. L. Bliss State Park as the result of opening the Pine Flats campground. At Emerald Bay, the agency has completed a boat access campground on the north side of the bay.

PT&T Structure Is Prize Winner

The Pacific Telephone Mobil Radio Station at Brockway was highlighted for excellence in architecture during the chamber of commerce luncheon at the Chataux in Incline Village recently.

The Brockway building was one of 43 buildings throughout the United States which earned awards in the Fourth Architectural Review of the Bell System.

Jack Domergue, Pacific Telephone manager at Tahoe City, received the award from Robert Hoffmann, chief engineer for the phone company's northern counties area administrative area.

Hoffmann noted in his presentation that five Pacific Telephone buildings have been completed in the Lake Tahoe area during the last four years. They are the central office and business office at South Lake Tahoe, the Echo Summit Tram Shed, the new Tahoe City business office and the Brockway Mobil Radio Station.

The South Lake Tahoe central office won a similar award for architecture two years ago.

Hoffmann said that 312 buildings were entered in the national contest. The buildings were judged on excellence of design, how they fit into their surroundings, cost and efficiency of floor space. Three nationally recognized architects judged the contest.

Pacific Telephone engineer Jay Peterson also received an award for the design of the building.

An architects rendering of the Brockway building and the award presented to Domergue will be on display at the phone company's business office in Tahoe City.

T-T Grads at Sierra College on Increase

ROCKLIN—The Sierra College report on spring enrollment shows solid growth in enrollment in all areas except Placerville-Folsom, which is now in the new Los Rios district.

Spring enrollment rose from 1279 to 1420 in a year. Men outnumbered women 901 to 519 and freshmen topped sophomores 897 to 506.

The number of Tahoe Truckee high school graduates was up 20 per cent, rising from 40 to 48. Roseville is the home town for more students than any other community, sending 266.

Tahoe City contributes 21, Truckee 16, Carnelian Bay one, Kings Beach eight, Tahoe Vista three, and 11 others were listed as simply from Placer County.

These day-student statistics are augmented by 757 night students only. Some 400 day scholars are also enrolled in evening classes.

With the campus expected to nearly double in the next year, as the result of a two-year near-three million dollar building program, enrollment is again expected to rise during the year ahead.

Congressional Group
In Session at Tahoe

Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson of this district announces a tentative agenda for the April 30-May 2 hearings on pollution problems at Lake Tahoe.

The hearings will convene at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Tahoe Sands Motel auditorium. Federal officials will open the testimony, followed by representatives of California and Nevada, and the five counties bordering the lake.

Monday's meeting, starting at 9 a.m., will hear testimony from various basin organizations.

Congressman John Blatnik of Minnesota will chair the hearings of the house public works committee.

Gary K. Smith and Elizabeth A. Healy, both of Kings Beach, have been issued a marriage license recently at Reno.

Assemblyman Bitter
As Backing Withheld
On Tahoe Money Bill

SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman Gene Chappie today took the Brown administration to task for its opposition to his AB 146, a proposal which provides for a loan of $2.9 million dollars for the removal of sewage from the north Lake Tahoe area.

Chappie said, "I am extremely disappointed at the lack of cooperation or assistance which the administration has shown towards my proposal. Both the Placer County board of supervisors and local utility districts on the north shore of Lake Tahoe are behind this measure."

"A complete study was conducted by Engineering Science in 1965 setting forth a well integrated proposal. . . Plan B . . . which will solve the sewage problem in the North Tahoe area. The time is now upon us for action to implement this proposal."

"Apparently the governor has no real desire to solve the pollution problem and maintain the crystal clear waters of Lake Tahoe."

Chappie went on to criticize an administration sponsored resolution by Senator Teale (Senate Resolution No. 104) which Chappie says "calls for another study of the sewage problem at the north shore when we have 'studied to death' the problem."

Chappie said: "I am asking that the Brown administration tell us what type of legislation they want, if any, which will do the job."

Tahoe City Ski Patrol
Holds Final Meeting

The Tahoe City Ski Patrol last week held their final meeting of this year at the home of Fred Hoeder, patrol leader.

After a pot-luck dinner, the following new officers were elected: Leon Lucchesi, patrol leader; and Hal Fandl, secretary and treasurer. Don Huber will be chairman of testing and Bert Huber will instruct both standard and advanced first aid courses.

Poulsen Gets Approval
For Squaw Construction

A 44-unit condominium resort building at Squaw Valley has been approved by Richard M. Heikka, Placer County zoning administrator. The construction is proposed by Wayne Poulsen.

The structure will include guest rooms, a bar, a restaurant and interior shops.

Sierra College Projects
Open House in Month

ROCKLIN—Sierra College student body leaders are planning an "open house" at the local college for students and parents of local high school students.

Tentatively, the event is slated the third or fourth week of May, with a Friday evening tour and barbecue planned.

The event will follow, by a week, the annual recognition banquet at which two dozen top students from as many departments will be given special recognition for "contribution" to the college.

Student body elections for the fall term also will be held during May, President Ken Herr announced.

Mackay Week Fete
This Week at U. of N.

Students at the University of Nevada in Reno are going back to the days of the old West this week as the traditional Mackay Week celebrations begin.

The 53-year-old festivities honor Clarence Mackay, one of the university's greatest benefactors. Festivities this year run from April 28 to April 30.

Sacramento State Will Offer Courses at Lake

Sacramento State College has issued catalogs for its 1966 summer sessions. Two of the five session divisions will be conducted at Lake Tahoe. The Tahoe City session will be from June 13 to 24 and the one at Al Tahoe July 5-August 12.

Between 5,500 and 6,000 persons are expected to participate in 450 courses and sections in 33 study areas being offered by SSC. Catalogs and additional information are available from the summer session office, room 220 in the administration building at Sacramento State, 6000 J. Street, in the capital city.

Parks Chief Indicates
State Will Consider
Buying Out Cushing

In response to state senate resolution 77, calling for a study of total state acquisition of Squaw Valley resort areas, the state park commission indicated it will consider state purchase of the holdings of Alexander Cushing in the valley.

A report from the department of parks and recreation will be presented to the legislature at next year's session.

For years there has been frequent contention between the state and Cushing's Squaw Valley Development Company. The state lease on its concessions is Squaw Valley Improvement Corporation, headed by William Newscom, Sr. The latter's concession now includes Olympic Village, Blyth Arena, the Nevada Center, the California Center and a ski equipment shop.

Secondary School Plans
Are Outlined For Incline

Architect's drawings of a projected junior and senior high school complex at Incline Village, Lake Tahoe, have been presented to the Washoe County school board.

Plans for the new education center will be ready by April next year, with construction completion forecast for June 1, 1968, by Architect Edward Parsons.

LTAC Ma'es Statement
Of Points on Compact

The Lake Tahoe Area Council executive committee this week gave tentative approval to a position statement on the proposed interstate water compact. Final approval pending conferences between Executive Director C. E. Martin and officials of Reno, Sparks, Washoe County and Sierra Pacific Power Company.

Points in the statement include: The proposed 34,000 acre feet of water allocated for use in the Tahoe basin should be made without restriction on exportation of sewage effluent.

The compact should require export of effluent as long as public health and water clarity demand.

The compact should clearly assure adequate future water supplies to downstream cities and the Pyramid Lake Indian reservation. Several other general stipulations were also spelled out by the LTAC committee.

TAHOE STATISTICS

The level of Lake Tahoe at Tahoe City was 6227.70 on Wednesday and Daryl DeWalt's office reported 70 cfs of water leaving the gate. High and low temperatures both occurred on April 26—61 degrees high, 22 low.
